Mr. Eikenberry –

The Behavioral Hearing is an opportunity for the Respondent to either take responsibility or deny responsibility for the conduct charged. If the Respondent denies responsibility, the matter is then presented to a University Conduct Board, which is an in-person adjudicatory process. All of this is explained in detail on the University's website.

If you still object to having the Behavioral Hearing held telephonically, then I'll advise Student Conduct Administrator Jack Flynn that your client [REDACTED] is denying responsibility for the conduct charged and to schedule a University Conduct Board hearing.

Please advise how you wish to proceed.

Thanks,

Joshua Hurwit

Dear Mr Hurwit:

Please be informed that I respectfully object to a telephonic hearing.

[REDACTED]'s entire life is on the line and he is not able to be present while very serious allegations are made against him?

This is shabby due process.

Very truly yours,
Pete Eikenberry

Dear Mr. Hurwit- now that we are no longer on the first name basis of our initial contact. Please be informed, that [REDACTED] was taken by ambulance to hospital emergency room last week end with strep throat but he should have received correspondence. I previously informed the Dean that I would be in Ohio on family business this week and would have be seeking adjournment for any hearing dates that became scheduled. I herby request an adjournment until a July date. I have appeared as [REDACTED]'s attorney in these proceedings and request that I be notified of all dates relevant to my representation.

Thanks for your cooperation

Very truly yours,

Pete Eikenberry
